See Yourself at Summer Camp: Girl Scout Programs Open to All Local Youth

Syracuse, N.Y. (April 23, 2025) — Pack your bags and bring your sense of adventure—camp season’s almost here! Girl Scouts of NYPENN Pathways (GSNYPENN) invites youth entering grades 1–12 this fall (yes, all youth—not just Girl Scouts) for unforgettable fun at its summer camps. The council is home to four properties in New York with a longstanding tradition of building outdoor leadership skills: Camp Amahami in Deposit, Camp Comstock in Ithaca, Camp Hoover in Tully and Camp Trefoil in Harrisville.

Whether kids are into kayaking, hiking, the arts, s’mores by the fire or making new friends, GSNYPENN has something for everyone. With day and overnight options, themed weeks and tons of nature-powered excitement, this is a summer to let them shine. No prior experience is required; campers just need to bring their curiosity and courage! To view full details, and pricing and register a camper, visit girlslovecamp.org. Sessions fill fast, so don’t wait!

“Camp builds confidence by connecting kids to nature while they unplug and unwind outdoors. Our campers gain lifelong leadership skills, make social connections with peers and trusted staff, try new things, challenge themselves and take safe risks in a nurturing environment,” says Sandra Macklin, GSNYPENN’s Director of Outdoor Experience.
